Peab extends Skänninge Prison on the outskirts of Mjölby

Peab has been commissioned to build new prison buildings in Skänninge, just outside Mjölby. The customer is Specialfastigheter Sverige AB and The Prison and Probation Service will be the tenant. The project is a traditional contract worth SEK 212 million.

The two new buildings will hold living quarters with a total of 96 places as well as rooms for operations and studies. The non-residential area amounts to around 4,000 m<sup>2</sup> per building. The buildings will be erected in the existing prison area and will be built according to the criteria for Miljöbyggnad, level Gold.

“We’re pleased to have been entrusted with this prison construction together with Specialfastigheter. We are thoroughly committed to the project and will take it on in the best possible way,” says Anders Bergeling, Region Manager Peab.

Construction will start in April 2021 and the project is expected to be complete at the end of 2022.

The project will be order registered in the first quarter 2021.
